

Dr. Kitty Oliver, Director

<http://proteus.fau.edu/raceandchange>

The American Haitian Experience

Wilbert St. Fort is a 20 year old Haitian American who was born in the U.S. and has lived here his whole life. Although he is technically an American, people still assume he is new to the country and they have their prejudices. He has dealt with racism on some occasions but overall people have been very accepting. In fact, his best friends are Caucasian and Hispanic. Mark Gibson is the interviewer.